

MEMBERS BULLETIN

5th March 2010

From the General Manager

Eastern Lotus Chinese Restaurant

Due to a delay in the installation of kitchen equipment the opening date for the Eastern Lotus Chinese Restaurant is now planned for next Wednesday 10th March.

The Bistro will be closed on the evenings of Monday the 8th and Tuesday 9th March to allow for renovations. The Windmill Café will be open as usual for lunch with a range of yummy sandwiches, focaccias etc available.

The Eastern Lotus Chinese Restaurant will conduct its first smorgasbord on Saturday 13th March. From this date onwards the smorgasbord will operate every Wednesday and Saturday evening.

In addition to the Chinese cuisine, Australian style dishes will also be available; this includes T-Bone Steak, Chicken Schnitzel and fish and chips.

A takeaway menu will also be offered 7 days per week. The Windmill Café will operate as usual and will also be open 7 days per week.

